

CANADIAN

FEBRUARY 2017

Recipe Lab: Best
Milk-Braised Chicken

HOUSE & HOME

THE MAGAZINE OF HOME & STYLE

DECORATING WARMS UP

FROM A COSY FARMHOUSE TO A
MEXICAN CASA, THE ENDURING
APPEAL OF RUSTIC STYLE

ACTOR
DAVID CUBITT'S
DREAMY GETAWAY IN SAN MIGUEL

ANTIQUES FIND A HOME IN
SCOTT YETMAN'S
MODERN CONDO

THE NEW MIX:
A BLAND BEDROOM
GETS A BOHO
MAKEOVER

Display until February 5 $6.50

www.houseandhome.com

Style FILES

Cork-topped canisters by Dahlhaus Studio (middle shelf, far left), from $50 each; candles (next to canisters) by Cambie Design, $25 each; rugs (stacked, far right), from $175 each; floor cushions (top shelf, far right), $195 each.

Wall hanging by Electric Sun Creatives, $135.

FIND IT

CAMBIE DESIGN
1048 Queen St. W.,
Toronto, (416) 516-7132
cambiedesign.com

SHOP

CAMBIE DESIGN

Peru holds a special place in Camille Byrne's heart. The owner of Cambie Design launched her textiles business after visiting the country for a family wedding in 2011. "My mom is from Peru, and I had been many times, but on that trip I saw textiles in a new light," she says. Camille returned to Toronto with a pile of blankets she began selling at flea markets before opening a permanent shop in 2013. When she relocated to a larger space just west of the city's Trinity Bellwoods neighbourhood last year, she expanded her global offerings with Moroccan textiles. "The bright colours are so cheery," she says. Those Peruvian blankets that launched Cambie Design are now custom-made; Camille selects all the colours and patterns herself. She devotes the rest of the shop mostly to Canadian talent. Ceramics from Vancouver's Dahlhaus Studio and Toronto's Shayna Stevenson are displayed alongside woven wall hangings by Picot Collective in Victoria, B.C. Even the design of the store showcases local makers, with Akai Ceramic Studio pendant lights illuminating a counter clad with custom tiles by Xenia Taler Design. "What has been most satisfying is the community I've built around Cambie," says Camille.

< Ceramic cup by Akai Ceramic Studio, $16; incense holder by Akai Ceramic Studio, $24; small sage bundles by Province Apothecary (in dish, far right), $10 each.

Owner Camille Byrne in the back room of her sunlit Toronto store. Pillow covers, $45 each.

Throw by Artisan Project, $295.